DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Correction and/or clarification is required.

Regarding claims 1 and 3, the recitation “the diode being coupled to the internal node so that a DC potential at a terminal of the diode, which controls the on/off switching of the diode, is determined by a potential of the internal node in opposition to on/off switching of the main current channels” is indefinite because it is misdescriptive. Figure 1 of the present application shows that the potential of the internal node (101) is determined by the potential (5V) applied to the anode of diode (104). It is not clear what the recitation “in opposition to on/off switching of the main current channels” is meant by. Explanation is required.

Claims 2 and 4 are indefinite because of the technical deficiencies if claims 1 and 3.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Weir (USP. 4,595,847).

Regarding claims 1-4, figure 3 of weir shows an electronic signal processing apparatus with a signal switch comprising:

a switch input (27), a switch output (28) and an internal node;

first and second depletion transistors (19), (20);

Art Unit: 2816

a signal processing arrangement comprising a diode (23) coupled between the internal node and a reference signal; the potential applied to the anode of diode (23) with respect to the internal node is $V_{gs} = i_2 \cdot R$; when current (i_2) is large, the voltage (V_{gs}) is high enough to turn off depletion transistors (19) and (20); when current i_2 is small or equal to zero, the voltage (V_{gs}) is small enough to turn on depletion transistors (19) and (20). Note that when (V_{gs}) is high, diode (23) forward biased and transistors (19) and (20) are turned off (non conductive) and no current flows through the main channel (col. 4, lines 18-55). The control voltage (V_{cc1}) is applied from the control output (the drain of transistor 21) to the main current channels via diode (23).
